

冬になると餌を求め、人里に舞い降りるタンチョウ。アイヌ語でサルルンカムイ（湿原の神）と呼ばれ、翼を広げると2メートルを優に超す優雅な舞に寒さも忘れる。上空からはオジロワシが餌を奪いにやって来た！さあ、タンチョウとオジロワシの争奪戦が始まる。ここでしか見られない、特別な瞬間を見逃すな！

In the winter, red-crowned cranes move to human habitation in search of food. In the Ainu language, the red-crowned crane is known as Sarurun Kamuy (the god of the marshes). They have a wingspan of more than 2m and their elegant dance will drive away the cold. A white-tailed eagle swoops in to steal food from red-crowned cranes! Let the battle commence between them. Do not miss the special moment that can only be seen here!

あかん
阿寒国際ツルセンター「GRUS」
<http://aiccgrus.wix.com/aiccgrus>

Akan International Crane Center (GRUS)
<http://aiccgrus.wix.com/aiccgrus#!english-page/kzk9s>

ワンダフルくしろ 釧路
Recommended by Wonderful Kushiro

くしろ 釧路出身ではないが釧路に嫁いで25年以上のバワフルメンバーの親睦団体。男性はくしろ 釧路を愛する心のイケメンです。

A social group consists of energetic women who have been living in Kushiro for more than 25 years, which was where they moved to when they got married. Male members have love for Kushiro and handsome hearts.

釧路
Kushiro

タンチョウとオジロワシの闘い

Red-Crowned Cranes in conflict with White-Tailed Eagle

